

IATS

IATS: Panel Discussion

- Scott R. Lambert, M.D.

- Elias I. Traboulsi, M.D.

- David G. Morrison, M.D.

Case 1

- 17 day old infant with retrolenticular plaque in right eye noted at birth.
- Private health insurance
- Live locally
- At what age would you perform cataract surgery?
- Would you implant an IOL?

• • • • • • • • • •

Case 2

- 4 month old infant with dense nuclear cataract in right eye.
- Medicaid health insurance
- Live 3 hour drive away
- Would you implant an IOL?

Case 2

- Axial lengths: OD 19.35 mm;
- OS 19.60 mm
- K readings: OD 39.25/42.50;
- OS 40.00/41.00
- Emmetropia IOL Power: OD 39.28 D
- What IOL power would you implant?

• • • • • • • • • •

Case 3

- 3 month old infant with dense cataract OD.
- Medicaid health insurance
- Right corneal diameter 8 mm
- Live 2 hour drive away
- Would you implant an IOL?

Case 4

- 7 week old infant found to have dense cataract in OD during ROP screening.
- Born at PMA 32 weeks
- Still hospitalized in NICU secondary to BPD
- What age would you perform cataract surgery?
- Would you implant an IOL?

• • • • • • • • • •